- 2 There appears to be no need in the change of the system of payments in vogue in the Municipal Engineer's Office, as the present pre-audit system is better than a system of audit after payment.
There is, however, no objection to the revision, as in Public Works Department, of the forms relating to the initial accounts viz., Measurement Books and Bills of Contractors. Instead of writing up an abstract copy of the bill in the Measurement Book itself, duplicate bills may be conveniently prepared and kept in the Municipal Engineer's Office, for which an additional clerk on ₹ 25/- may be sanctioned for a period of one year from 1st July 1929
